

same; but the owner, master or any one having a mortgage or lien on the said vessel, may appeal from the judgment of said justice of the peace to the circuit court for Somerset county, and upon giving bond in such sum as may represent double the value of the said vessel, the said vessel shall be released; and it shall be the duty of the officers of the State fishery force to arrest all persons found violating any of the provisions of said sections, and bring the offender before some justice of the peace, most convenient, to be dealt with as herein provided; and the same officers shall serve any warrant issued by any justice of the peace of Somerset county, for the violation of said sections, and immediately bring the offender before said justice of the peace for trial. The money received from license for all vessels shall be paid by the clerk to the secretary and treasurer of the school board for said county, for the use of the schools of Somerset county; and all fines shall be paid to the clerk of the court of said county, by the justice of the peace hearing the case, within thirty days from the date of the trial; and the said clerk shall pay the same to the secretary and treasurer of the school board of said county for the benefit of the school fund.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 19, sec. 98.

175. In all cases where a vessel or individual shall be tried, either upon appeal or otherwise, for a violation of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, and shall be acquitted or discharged by the circuit court or by a justice of the peace for Somerset county, the county commissioners shall pay the legal costs of defending the prosecution, to such individual or the owner of such vessel.

1884, ch. 255. 1888, ch. 338.

176. Any justice of the peace of said county, upon the oath of any credible witness, may issue a warrant to the sheriff of said county, or constable in said county, or to the commander of any steamer or vessel of the oyster police force in said county, for the arrest of any person, or the seizure of any vessel charged with the violation of any of the provisions of sections 171 and 172; and any of said officers shall have power to employ such force as may be necessary to make such arrest or seizure.
